Remarkable After Meeting at the Services in the Armory -Dr. Stough Makes Great Impression and will Remain Into Next Week, Lease of Armory Being Again Extended.

Dr. Stough, the evangelist, and the pastors and others interested with him in the union evangelistic campaign had reason to feel Wednesday night at the armory meeting that the loc of indiference which he had said was binding this city was broken through at last. In a remarkable meeting following the preaching service 75 men and women came out of the congregation up to the platform, where they knelt in expressing their purpose to follow Christ and the men stood up one by one to confess Christ. This first public demonstration of the influence of the evangelistic campaign followed a thoughtful and thought-compelling serinon by Dr. Stough upon The New Birth.

As Wednesday was flower day, Dr. Stough spoke briefly of its observance in the distribution of bouquets, but a report from Mrs. Frank A. Roath was not ready for presentation. All the flowers distributed had been received with great appreciation. Among the lasticutions to which bouquets were sent were the almshouse, Sheltering Arms, Grand View sanitarium, Backus hospital and 55hnson home. Large numbers of flowers were also sent to different individuals in the city, and Rev. Mr. Wright read a list of a few addresses which had not been reached. These flowers were taken to the proper places after the service.

Rev. C. H. Ricketts offered prayer after Dr. Stough had read a dozen requests that had been sent in. Dr. Stough's text for the sermon was the familiar verse, John iit, 7: "Ye must be born again." In these words to Niccodemus, Jesus declared the absolute necessity of a new birth in the heart of every sinner. God's Image in man dhas been distorted and debased by the daub of sin. It is no time to argue to over the origin of sin. Sin is here and to six the proper content to personal evangelism. This is a matter of life and death in all New England cities.
